

Humanimal Trust Creative Awards 2024

Calling all people from 7yrs and Upwards

In celebration of the connectivity between us and other animals, we are launching our Creative Awards 2024. We invite you to share, using all your creative skills, your thoughts and art based on the wonderful bond between us and the animals we live with on this planet.

Each entry will then be judged by a panel consisting of our founder, Professor Noel Fitzpatrick, world history author and storyteller, Christopher Lloyd, and Managing Director of What on Earth Books, Nancy Feresten.

So whether you are a writer, artist, photographer or film director we have a category for you to enter!

Visit our website for details on how to enter to win some fabulous prizes!
